THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1909.

Entered at the Greenville, Ky., postoffice as second-class matter.

NEVER fear but that the old appetite will grow on you again before Christmas.

PERHAPS the failure to locate the Astor yacht sooner was on account of its unpronounceable name.

THE turkey that escaped the Thanksgiving slaughter may yet lose his head under the Christmas ax.

BREATHITT county has one redeeming quality. At the recent election it voted overwhelmingly in favor of good roads.

ALL things that go up must come down, according to the inviolable law of nature, always excepting the cost of the Panama canal.

IT will be a shame to let the Cherry widows and orphans bear the expense of Illinois' schooling in practical and humane coal mining.

BE sure to do your Christmas shopping early. Somebody for whom you buy a present may hear of it soon enough to buy you one in return.

TWO sleeping children so worked on a Chicago burglar that he gave back the money he had stolen, but had those same youngsters been awake he never would have had a chance to do any stealing.

TWENTY-nine lives lost, twenty severely injured and many more hurt is the record of the football season just closed. This should speak eloquently in favor of eliminating the brutal features of this game.

IT is time for Col. John Jacob Astor to step down and give someone else room on the front page. More space has been devoted to the probable disappearance of the Astor yacht than to the Cherry mine disaster.

Fire At Central City.

Central City was visited by a fire at an early hour Friday morning that destroyed three dwellings, with a loss of about $4,600. The fire originated from a defective flue in the home of Assistant Chief of Police George Wood. The barking of the family dog awakened the inmates of the house, and this alone prevented their injury. The home of M. F. Moore, on the east side of the burning building, next took fire, and for a while it appeared that the entire row on Broad street, between Second and Third streets, was doomed. The hose reel purchased a short time ago and stored away, no one seemed to know where, was finally located and brought to the fire, which was soon gotten under control. Had the fire department been located earlier in the morning the fire would have been confined to the dwelling in which it started. It might have been possible for the bucket brigade to have saved one or both of the houses, but the men expecting to have the hose, with which to fight the fire, came without their buckets. As a result of this experience a volunteer fire department has been organized, and they will drill until they become proficient in the handling of fires. The losses follow: M. F. Moore, $1,800; Mrs. Anna McDowell, $800; George Wood, $600; James N. Moorman, administrator of the estate of Mrs. Fannie Wallace, deceased, $500; Mrs. N. J. and Miss Blanche Rosson, $100.

Miss Drue Hayden, of Rockport; Miss Bessie Gardner, of Louisville, and the Misses Ford, of Earlington, were the guests of Dr. J. G. Bohannon and family Thursday.

Shock.

Shocking is the term employed in surgery to designate the state of physical and mental depression which follows a severe injury or some disturbing emotion of the mind.

The condition consists essentially in a want of equilibrium in the circulation, the arteries losing their tone, as a consequence of which the great mass of blood accumulates in the veins, especially the large blood-vessels of the abdomen. The brain and other vital organs are deprived of the necessary blood supply, and are thereby rendered incapable of performing their important functions properly.

Shock may exist in any degree, and the symptoms will vary accordingly from the pallor and slight faintness which one may feel momentarily in making a misstep, or the receipt of bad news, all the way up to sudden stoppage of the heart, and death.

In shock of average intensity, such as follows a severe injury, the face is pallid, the pulse is weak and rapid, the skin is cool and often covered with a clammy perspiration, the muscular system is relaxed, the sufferer is nauseated and sometimes vomits, and the mental faculties and sensibilities are benumbed so that no pain is felt, even though bones may be broken and flesh torn. Not only is the surface cool or cold, but the actual temperature of the body, as measured by the thermometer, is lowered, sometimes to the extent of two or three degrees.

When shock depends upon a violent mental emotion, such as fear or the receipt of sudden bad news, or upon a severe injury, as that received in a railroad accident or when shot, the symptoms appear suddenly; but when it follows a surgical operation, its appearance may be delayed several hours. Its degree depends not only upon the seat of it. A blow on the abdomen will cause more severe shock than a much worse injury to an extremity, or even to the head.

Treatment of shock calls for the service of a physician, for it consists in the administration of powerful remedies to restore the tone in the relaxed blood-vessels, and often the injection of salt solution; but something can be done while awaiting the physician.

The sufferer should not be moved; he should lie flat; he should have air, and the usual crowd of the curious should be dispersed. The eyes should be shielded from light. Hot cloths should be applied to the extremities and over the heart, and if he can swallow, he should be allowed to sip a little hot water. Stimulants should be given, if at all, in very moderate quantities.

Mrs. L. E. Rice and Miss Ethel Jarvis were in Louisville last week.

Miss Hallie Eaves spent Thanksgiving in Owensboro.

Mrs. George Fentress, of South Carrollton, was here with friends a few days last week.

Ideal weather Thanksgiving.

Christmas next. Get busy,

Merchants will soon have Christmas goods on display, and the merry-go-round of holiday shoppers will begin.

Miss Ernestine Cain, of Central City, and Mr. Charles Augustus Morris, of Wilmington, N. C., were married at the Methodist church, at Central City, Thanksgiving day. They will reside in Wilmington.

There was a total eclipse of the moon Saturday morning. The moon entered the earth's shadow at 1.12 o'clock and went into total eclipse at 2.14, which lasted until one hour and two minutes later. The night was perfect, without a cloud in the sky, and those who witnessed the eclipse report it the finest ever seen.

Mrs. Myra Lambuth, of Elizabethtown, is here on a visit to the family of W. L. Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sullivan, of Depton, Texas, are here on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Morgan. Mr. Sullivan is a Muhlenberg county boy, having been reared at South Carrollton, and going from there to Texas several years ago. He was recently married to Miss Marie Adams, of Bryan, Texas.

Horse and mule buyers were in town Monday, and several animals went at fancy prices.

A Reader Talks of Coming Events.

According to THE RECORD there are to be some weddings on the local social calendar for this winter. This interesting item of news has naturally given rise to more or less speculation. The social incubator has been hatching many rumors; most of them have barely pipped the shell, but some are feathering out hopefully, and bid fair to become full fledged. We have a bunch of young men who are trying to tether their hopes to the matrimonial to-boggan. The boys are "willin'" but the reluctance of the girls! There's the trouble.

Those Greenville girls, those Greenville girls! 'Tis all in vain that Cupid hurls At their unfeeling, frozen hearts His keen and penetrating darts.

Those unconquered Greenville girls, May Cupid's arrows that he hurls Subdue their hearts and make them tingle Until they're tied staying single.

COSMOS.

Scott Morgan and J. H. Pittman are the only candidates who are now running for city marshal.

The sheriff's office was crowded Monday with people waiting to pay their taxes. Wednesday was the day for the penalty to go on, and many were anxious to pay before this was added.

The Muhlenberg County Teachers' Association, which was held here Friday and Saturday, was well attended.

Wait for the bazaar to be held by the ladies of the Cumberland church on Dec. 16 and 17. You will find many useful and novel gifts for sale.

Mr. J. K. Freeman, Jr., of Central City, was among the visiting attorneys who were here at court Monday.

Remember to vote for city marshal at the election to be held Monday, in the city hall.

A Correction.

The first annual meeting of the Kentucky Wool Growers' Union will be held at Owensboro, Ky., on Thursday, Dec. 9th, 1909, and not on the second Tuesday as formerly announced through some of our State papers.

The constitution and laws plainly provides for the second Thursday of December as the time to hold the annual meeting.

J. F. Doss, Member State Board Directors A. S. of E.—Wool Dept.

There are now only two candidates for city marshal.

It is December, and still the weather is fine.

Good morning! Have you arranged your Christmas gifts yet?

Candidate for Marshal Withdraws.

To the people of Greenville:

I desire to say that on account of some business considerations and the uncertain condition of my health I have thought best to withdraw from the race for city marshal, and want to add that I feel grateful to my friends for their warm support tendered me in this matter, and with ill will to none and good feelings to all, I hereby cease to be a candidate.

Rural Telephones.

Mr. Farmer: Make your home as modern for your family as a city residence, and place yourself in a position to get the latest market quotations at any time. This can be accomplished by means of our telephone service, which you and your neighbors can get for a sum that is small compared with the benefits received. Call or address our nearest office or write direct to headquarters, Nashville Tennessee, for information regarding our special "Farmers' Line" rate. If you are not at present enjoying telephone service, we can immediately interest you. Our lines cover the States of Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana and the southern portion of Indiana and Illinois.

CUMBERLAND TEL. & TEL. CO. (Incorporated.)

A Bissell carpet sweeper will last longer than 40 corn brooms, costing from $12 to $15; the sweepers cost $3 to $5.75. See them at Roark's, and have other advantages than the money-saving features explained.

Take your hides to Coombs, who pays the highest cash prices.

If it's books, magazines, etc., get them from this office.
